FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 10, 1904.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:33 and sets 7:26. High water at 5:04 a. m. and 5:28 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section rain and continued cool tonight. Saturday partly cloudy and warmer; fresh easterly winds.

Change in the Weather.

The weather, which at times was cloudy and sultry yesterday, became stormy and cool at the close of the day. The wind had been from the east, and between six and seven o'clock it freshened considerably, and for an hour savored that of a tornado. Clouds of dust were hurled through the streets, limbs were twisted from trees and there was apprehension of more serious damage as the wind came in heavy flaps. The river was lashed into a frenzy, and waves chased waves from the Maryland to the Virginia shore. Sailing vessels in the stream were forced to anchor, while those in the docks were rocked to and fro and forced against the wharves. The steamboats experienced difficulty in making the landings and in keeping in position at the piers. Later rain, thunder and lightning prevailed and continued for several hours. The temperature fell considerably in the meantime, and the remainder of the night was cold and dismal. Conditions this morning were practically unchanged save that the air was colder. In fact fires felt comfortable.

Cloudburst and Washout.

There was a cloudburst and a serious washout between Burke's and Clifton, on the Southern Railway, between six and seven o'clock yesterday evening. A heavy dark cloud had been wafted in that direction by the northeast wind and while it was emptying itself the thunder could be heard in this city. The rain came down in torrents, and railroad men compelled to be out in it say in less time than it takes to tell it their clothing was soaked as thoroughly as if they had fallen overboard. The runs in the vicinity rose rapidly, and forming eddies washed away new embankments and brought traffic to a standstill. It took several hours to repair the damage, and trains due early in the evening were detained for a long time on the other side of the washouts. People who arrived here today from Loudoun county say the rain last night on the line of the Washington and Ohio road was torrential, and that in some cases the water was awash with the bridges. No serious damage occurred, however.

Marriages.

Mr. Robert D. Wattles, formerly of Alexandria, but now of Portsmouth, and Miss Ruth Anna Creole, of Fauquier, were married in the Presbyterian Church at Marshall yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. N. Campbell officiated. Miss Edna J. Middleton was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Mary Campbell and F. Ethel Smith. The ushers were Rev. G. W. Staples and Mr. E. S. Moore. Mr. Ernest R. Crynes, of this city, was best man, and Miss Bessie Strickler organist. The bride was becomingly attired in white silk tulle and duchesse lace with tulle veil; the maid of honor in pink silk, champagne color, and point lace; the bridesmaids were attired in Paris muslin over green silk, with lace picture hats trimmed with green. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers.

Mr. Walter Dameron, of Alexandria, and Miss Rosa May Dabney of Rockfish, Nelson county, met in Charlottesville Tuesday and the same night at 12:15 o'clock left for Pellham, N. C., where they were married Wednesday morning. They passed through Charlottesville that afternoon on a northern bridal tour, after which they will reside in Alexandria. Mr. Dameron is a conductor on the Southern Railway.

Daughters of America.

At the regular monthly meeting last night of Mary Washington Council, No. 4, Daughters of America, the following officers were elected: Councilor, Walter Branner; associate councilor, Martha Byrne; vice councilor, Mary Byrne; recording secretary, W. A. Harding; assistant recording secretary, Courtney Reeves; financial secretary, J. Louis Foster; treasurer, Bessie Simpson; conductor, Wm. Penn; Warden, Fannie Dodel; outside sentinel, Reani Lloyd; trustee, Mary Byrne; representative, N. C. J. Louis Foster; Representative, F. B. A.—Bessie Simpson.

Mount Vernon Council, Daughters of America, will hold their regular meeting tonight. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

Mr. Rice's Addresses.

Rev. Theron H. Rice, formerly pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon delivered a lecture before the Lavras Workers' Society of that church, and last night preached on the Bible and the home. Both addresses were listened to with interest. The high wind and rain prevented numbers who were desirous to hear Mr. Rice from being present at night, but there was a fair attendance notwithstanding, and the address was greatly enjoyed.

Knights of Columbus Excursion.

The excursion of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, to River View yesterday was a pleasant and successful affair until the close of the day, when the heavy northeast wind and accompanying rain, thunder and lightning threw a damper upon the festivities. Many persons had made arrangements to go down on the 7:30 boat, but the storm prevailing at the time prevented most of them from doing so.

Property Sales.

O. J. Nugent has sold to W. A. Barnett a house and lot on the north side of King street and between Payne and West, for $1,400.

H. M. Taylor has sold to B. F. Lucas a house and lot on the east side of Henry street, between Pendleton and Wythe.

B. F. Lucas has sold to P. N. Christman a house and lot on the east side of Henry street, between Pendleton and Wythe.

Birthday Party.

Virginia Hall entertained her little friends last night in honor of her fifth birthday at her home, 155 south Fairfax street. Among those present were Ella Bass, Edna Wolf, Dora Blumheim, Rena Amelia and Annie Schlichting, Edna Drew, Ida Heyman, Lillian and Marian Brill, Marian Wood, Edna Mardous and Susie Murphy; Masters Andrew Drew, Simon Bass, Sanders Murry, Stewart Brown, Hugh Murphy, Willie and Harry Wood, Neville Lynch, Albert Glover and Melvin Hall.

Baseball.

In a game of baseball played at River View yesterday the Cannibals defeated the Shamrocks by a score of 10 to 1. The pitching of Gorman and the work of Lyons behind the bat for the Cannibals were the features of the game.

The Alexandria and Langdon, Md., clubs will play a game of baseball tomorrow in this city.

Flower Day.

Flower day was observed by the ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union yesterday and many handsome flowers were sent to the sick and the infirm. The Gazette office was also remembered. Attached to each bouquet was a handsome card bearing a scriptural verse.

Personal.

Mr. Edgar Reginald D. Dove, of Lincolnshire, Eng., was a guest at the home of Mrs. F. B. Ewing on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert C. Baggett have returned from their wedding trip.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

A meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tonight.

Messrs. Brenner & Knight have been awarded a contract for the erection of a chapel at Bethel cemetery, in which funeral services can be held.

The red spar buoy at Chapman Point shoal has been temporarily moved about 300 feet northward of its former position and moored in 20 feet of water.

There will be a literary meeting of the Epworth League in the Sunday school room of the M. E. Church South, this evening at 8 o'clock. All are welcome.

The new crop of Havana tobacco used by B. B. Smith in his brand of Captain Billy cigars is said to be the finest grown. The "Captain Billy" is made in three shapes and is sold by most all dealers in the city.

Fried clams, 30c dozen; clam soup, 10c; salted and deviled crabs, 10c each, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at C. H. Zimmerman's.

All Read Newspapers.

"The newspaper which circulates among the people, all the people, is the medium in which I advertise my most expensive carpets and rugs," said a high-class dealer. "Rich people do not have papers of their own, but read the most enterprising. Some of the people who have costly goods may make you wonder where they get the money to do it. Anyhow, they do not read the magazines, but do read the newspapers. In short, everybody read the newspapers."—[Phila. Record.]

Worst of all Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Denton, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It is guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Steamed Hard Shell Crabs, Deviled Crabs and Salad, prepared from steamed crabs of our own picking, are relished by every one. Eammett's Restaurant, Home 'phone 63. Bell 'phone 103.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well-known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Caesar Young Case.

New York, June 10.—The coroner's inquest to inquire into the strange circumstances surrounding the death of Caesar Young, the bookmaker, who was shot in a cab while in company with Nan Patterson last Saturday, was halted again today until Monday because of the sudden disappearance of J. Morgan Smith and his wife, brother-in-law and sister of Miss Patterson. An important witness was brought into the case today in the person of one Willie Stamm, jr., of Brooklyn, who went to the police station and told Capt. Sweeney that he was the man who jumped on the step of the cab just after the shooting.

Appointed Senator.

Philadelphia, June 10.—Governor Pennypacker has appointed Attorney General Knox to the vacant senatorial seat and there will be no extra session of the legislature.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The board of governors of the Consolidated Exchange in New York announced today the expulsion of Dr. W. E. Woodend, of the suspended firm of W. E. Woodend & Co. The reason given to was "Obvious fraud," in dealings.

William Lackey, said to be a married man with family, and Della Contino, with whom he is alleged to have eloped from New York, were arrested in Philadelphia today and held to await the action of the New York police.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The reduced steamer rates on the American line has had the effect of swamping the offices at Southampton with applications for passage.

The legal proceedings incident to a suit for divorce brought by the Duchess of Valenay, formerly Miss Helen Morton, against her husband, are expected to be instituted in Paris today.

Miss Lena Morton, daughter of Levi P. Morton, who had been critically ill in Paris from blood poisoning following an operation for appendicitis, died at midnight last night. It is probable the body will be embalmed and taken to New York for interment.

M. Pelletan, French Minister of Marine, yesterday telephoned Admiral Gignou, the Maritime Prefect of Toulon, regarding the advisability of sending one or two warships to Morocco. No decision in the matter was arrived at.

It is stated that the Italian Ambassador to Berlin, General Lanza, has arrived in Rome on a mission with reference to the joint offer of Germany by Germany and Italy, should Port Arthur be taken by the Japanese.

The marriage of Count Constant-Biron to Miss Leishmann, daughter of the American Ambassador to Turkey, has been fixed for June 25th, at Paris.
